

My Story: A Documentation of My Health Transformation

May 24th, 2014

Dear Friends and Family,

I'm so glad that you contacted me and expressed interest in learning more about the incredible natural supplement system that I have used to transform my health in just three week's time! At first, I tried to respond to each message I received immediately and personally, and found I just couldn't type that fast! Also, I want to take this wonderful energy and vitality that I am experiencing and enjoy playing with my children and finally being free to manage my home!

Three weeks ago, I had hit yet another low point with my health. I was overwhelmed with exhaustion and fatigue, my weight was spiraling out of control, and despite the spring weather outside I was still experiencing arthritis pain in my joints. Allergy season had hit full force, and I was suffering from nasal congestion, watery eyes, sneezing fits and brain fog. The allergies had caused my heart palpitations to flare up again, and I was experiencing regular headaches and stabbing stomach pain, my all-too-familiar companions.

All winter long a friend of mine had been urging me to try a system of supplements and wellness products that both she and a friend of hers were using. They spoke to me of relief from joint pain, migraines and fatigue, and the weight loss testimonies were certainly compelling!

No, thanks. I've tried everything. I'm not interested in some crackpot pyramid scheme. Worked for you? Great. How nice. Have you googled this thing? The all-wise internet says it's a hoax.

Well, if it's a hoax, may the blinders never be lifted from my eyes. Please leave me in my state of ignorant bliss. Because I have my life back! Wait..."back" isn't the right word, because I've never felt well or sustained a healthy body weight since I was 8 years old. All through high school I suffered with painful migraines and fatigue, asthma and a whole host of other symptoms. I contracted mono when I was 20 years old, which decimated my immune system and sense of well-being, and ever since I have struggled with chronic fatigue, pain, and weight retention. Every medication I have ever been put on has left me with scary side effects and worsened my symptoms. Every plan, regime, diet, system, supplement and superfood has failed me. Every. single. time.

Five years ago I white-knuckled my way into a size 8 by way of an extreme fitness regime and a low calorie diet. I looked "healthy" on the outside, but the truth is I was exhausted all the time and experiencing terrible joint pain from the demanding workouts. And once I could no longer maintain that extreme lifestyle, I gained all the weight back within a matter of weeks. I was devastated and so very depressed. I felt like I was "stuck" in a trap of illness and despair forever.

And then, I said "yes." Finally won over by the natural ingredients in the products and the money-back guarantee, I placed a small order with Xyngular. I received two bottles of Super Fruit Global Blend and a box of Xyng and started in on the products. Though I went through a few days of serious detox symptoms as my sinuses cleared and I coughed up green garbage from my lungs, I was also immediately experiencing a sustained level of healthy, natural energy, an elevated mood, and an overall sense of calm well-being. In just one week I was breathing clearly and bursting with energy! I decided to order the Ignite System with Axion and begin a weight loss transformation. In just eight days I have lost ten pounds, five inches from my waist, four inches from my hips, and three inches from each thigh.

You're skeptical? I was too. You're tired of trying "one more thing," only to have your hopes dashed and your wallet plundered? So was I.

I invite you to give Xyngular a try. Go to my page at www.xyngular.com/swilbur and poke around. Get familiar with the products, read the testimonials, and think about whether you are ready to part ways with fatigue, illness and unwanted body weight forever. Your first order is completely risk-free, you can return empty packages for a full refund with no questions asked and no hassle.

Should you choose, as I did, to give Xyngular a try, let me just say that I am so thrilled for you! I am so passionate about these wonderful products and I want to see every tired, hurting, sick and sad friend and family member experience the same freedom of health and vitality that I have. I'm so thankful to God for bringing these safe, natural and effective products into my life, and I'm excited to think what the future may hold for myself and my family as I embrace this wonderful gift of wellness!

Blessings,

Stephanie
